

Subject: Slack Community for MS Class of 2021

Simon Business School | University of Rochester

Greetings from Simon Admissions! We are excited to inform you that we have created an online community for you and your classmates on Slack. If you're not familiar, Slack is a communications tool used by many major businesses for collaborating and connecting. In fact, current students and staff at Simon use Slack regularly!

You will receive an email from Slack regarding your access to the MS Admitted Student Class of 2021 Slack channel, as well as our housing and Rochester living channels (please check your junk/spam folder!). In the meantime, we recommend that you download the Slack application to your computer.

We hope these channels will be an easy way for you to connect with your classmates, learn about Simon and the Rochester community, and ensure that you're receiving important updates regarding your onboarding! Please note that some current students and staff will also be on these channels to assist with any questions.

We look forward to connecting with you on Slack!

Kind Regards,

MS Admissions Team
