

Subject: Kicking Off Simon Orientation!

Simon Business School | University of Rochester

Congratulations on your enrollment to Simon Business School! We are thrilled that you've joined the University of Rochester community. Before you begin your business school journey, we want to make sure you have all the tools and information you need to be successful.

What is Orientation?

Simon Business School Orientation is designed to prepare you for academics, co-curricular activities, and your career search. Through online information sessions, webinars, and weekly communications, we work to ensure that your transition to the University is as smooth as possible. You are required to complete Orientation before you begin classes.

There are three main components to Orientation, which we encourage you to review and explore as soon as you've enrolled at the University:

- Online Orientation: Mandatory and optional pre-recorded online sessions
 - Please check your MS program page for the Online Orientation schedule.
- Welcome Week: January 4–8, 2021 (Watch your inbox for more details. Registration will open in the next few weeks!)
- Enrollment Guide: Your incoming student checklist

For Online Orientation, please note that mandatory sessions include view-by deadlines. If you miss any of these deadlines, please contact us at:

- Office of Student Engagement: studentengagement@simon.rochester.edu
- Benet Career Management Center: career@simon.rochester.edu

Communications

Check out the Orientation Communications guide for more information about Slack, SimonWorks, Blackboard, and more.
